○ タブレットドリルと自学ノートの併用

Handwritten notes on a tablet screen, likely from a calendar or planner. The notes are in Japanese and include dates, times, and descriptions of activities. A large orange speech bubble is overlaid on the right side of the screen, containing the text: 自学が書かれていない日は、タブレットドリルを実施した日です (On days when self-study is not written, I implemented a tablet drill).

The notes are organized into columns and rows, with dates and times written in the left column and descriptions in the right column. The dates range from 1 to 6, and the times are written in the left column. The descriptions include various activities, some of which are highlighted in yellow.
